VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF CHARLOTTESVILLE

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

v.

Case No. 11-102

GEORGE HUGUELY,

Defendant.

RENEWED MOTION FOR INDIVIDUAL SEQUESTERED VOIR DIRE AND TO SEQUESTER THE JURY

The defendant, George Huguely ("Mr. Huguely"), by counsel, for his Renewed Motion for Individual Sequestered Voir Dire and to Sequester the Jury, states the following:

1. In pleadings previously filed with this Court, Mr. Huguely has articulated the basis for his request that the voir dire of potential jurors occur individually and sequestered, and has also articulated reasons he seeks to have the jury sequestered.

2. In the absence of a definitive ruling by the Court, Mr. Huguely renews his motions.

WHEREFORE the defendant, George Huguely, respectfully moves the Court to grant his motion to conduct individual and sequestered voir dire, to sequester the jury, and to grant him all other relief the Court deems proper and appropriate.
