VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF CHARLOTTESVILLE

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

v.

Case No. 11-102

GEORGE HUGUELY,
Defendant.

FILED

CIRCUIT COURT CLERK'S OFFICE
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA
LLEZELLE A. DUGGER, CLERK
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

MOTION TO CONTINUE

Defendant, George W. Huguely, V ("Mr. Huguely"), by counsel, for his Motion to Continue, respectfully moves the Court to reschedule the hearing now scheduled in his case for August 22, 2012 and the Sentencing scheduled for August 30, 2012, and in support thereof states as follows:

1. Arguments concerning defendant's motion for a new trial as to matters other than possible Brady violations are scheduled for August 22, 2012; and
2. Following oral argument on July 31, 2012, with respect to Mr. Huguely's request for a new trial with respect to Brady issues, the Court requested counsel to provide additional authorities to the Court by August 7, 2012; and
3. Oral argument on July 31, 2012 seemed to suggest that the issues with respect to the Brady matter were complicated and that the law in connection with the same is evolving; and
4. It is likely that the Court will want some period of time following its receipt of additional authority on August 7, 2012 to make its decision with respect to the Brady issues; and

5. It accordingly now seems possible, perhaps probable, that the Court would need more time than is currently available between August 7, 2012 and August 22, 2012 to rule on the Brady issue; and

6. Mr. Huguely is incarcerated in the Charlottesville-Albemarle Regional Jail and there are no issues of which Mr. Huguely is aware that mandate an expedited scheduling with matters concerning his case; and

7. It is anticipated that Mr. Huguely will have witnesses from out-of-state at the Sentencing, and travel for the same will need to be arranged in advance and, once arranged, will be difficult to change; and

8. Mr. Huguely respectfully submits that it would in the interest of all parties from a planning standpoint to grant his Motion to Continue as to the August 22, 2012 hearing and the August 30, 2012 Sentencing hearing.

WHEREFORE, the defendant, George W. Huguely, V, respectfully requests that the Court continue the August 22, 2012 hearing and the Sentencing now scheduled for August 30, 2012, to dates after October 1, 2012, and to grant him all other relief the Court deems proper and appropriate.

GEORGE HUGUELY
