1. As used in this contract, the term Advertiser shall include Advertising Agency, or any other agent or licensee of Advertiser, as well as the Advertiser.

2. Exterior advertising will be permitted on the sides and back of vehicles, and is limited to the sizes and placements as defined on the current CAT Bus Advertising Rate Card.

3. Exterior advertising will be permitted on the sides and back of vehicles, and is limited to the sizes and placements as defined on the current CAT Bus Advertising Rate Card.

4. Advertising of Public Services—The City of Charlottesville and its departments may purchase exterior advertising space to advertise non-commercial, viewpoint-neutral information concerning City-operated or City-sponsored events, services and/or initiatives. Any such advertisement shall be subject to all terms and conditions contained herein (other than that requiring proposal of a commercial transaction), and may be submitted to CAT only by a City Department Director. City of Charlottesville and CAT advertising is also permitted on interior advertising racks on a space-available basis free of charge; however, paid advertising shall take precedence.

5. Private Advertisements—Advertising space on CAT buses is not intended to be a public forum. The text and illustrations on advertising copy and materials used, shall be subject to approval by CAT, whose decision as to acceptability shall be final. Advertisements that are political or religious in nature are prohibited. All proposed advertising shall be reviewed for compliance with the following standards: (a) The advertisement shall not be false, misleading, libelous or deceptive; (b) The advertisement shall not relate to an illegal activity, or propose a commercial transaction that is prohibited by federal, state or local law; (c) The advertisement shall not contain explicit sexual material, obscene material, or material harmful to minors as those terms are defined in Va. Code §§ 18.2-372 et seq.; (d) The advertisement shall not advertise alcohol or tobacco products; (e) The advertisement shall not include language that is obscene or profane; (f) There shall be no advertisements for X-rated movies, sexually oriented businesses, adult bookstores, escort services, massage parlors, pawn shops, tattoo parlors, or check cashing services.

6. In reviewing advertising, the Director of Transportation ("Director") or his designee shall consider the appearance of the advertisement, the primary purpose of the advertisement, and whether the advertisement refers to goods or services. The Director or his designee shall consult with the City Attorney's office as necessary. Any advertiser whose advertisement has been rejected by the Director or his designee may appeal the denial to the City Manager in writing within five (5) business days. The City Manager shall consider the appeal and render a written determination within ten (10) business days of receipt of the appeal. The City Manager's determination shall be final.

7. Each advertiser is responsible for directly supplying finished advertising materials (without expense to CAT) to the CAT address which appears on the top page of this contract. All production arrangements are strictly between the production company and the Advertiser. Advertiser is responsible for ensuring that ads created by their production company are made to the dimensions and technical specifications required by CAT. Advertiser will allow seven (7) business days after delivery for installation of advertising materials.

8. CAT reserves the right to terminate any advertising displays based on adverse publicity or complaints. In the event that CAT or its representatives determine that any advertisement should be terminated pursuant to this paragraph, CAT shall have the right to remove said advertisement forthwith. The advertiser shall receive a pro rata credit for the remainder of the advertising contract as of the date of removal.

9. Loss of service due to failure of advertiser to timely provide finished advertising materials, or to provide advertising materials in the dimensions and technical specifications required by CAT, shall be at the advertiser's sole cost and expense. In the event that CAT, through its own errors, omits materials as contracted for, or in the event that there are delays in CAT's ability to commence the contracted advertising service, when such delays are not the fault of the advertiser, then the advertiser shall be entitled to a pro rata credit, or at the option of CAT, to additional service or an extension of the term of the service as necessary to provide the advertiser the full value of the originally contracted service.

10. Should the Advertiser's copy be damaged, defaced, mutilated or spoiled by reason of storm, flood, vandalism, ordinary wear/tear, or any other cause, replacement copy shall be furnished by the Advertiser upon CAT's request, without liability or expense on the part of CAT.

11. If a bus with advertising is out of service for more than seven (7) consecutive calendar days due to mechanical breakdown or other problems, CAT agrees to extend the contract for a period equal to the amount of time the Advertiser's copy is not displayed, to commence following the final day of non-service.

12. Advertiser shall indemnify and hold harmless CAT against any liability to which it may be subjected by reason of the advertising materials delivered under this contract, including but not limited to, liability for infringement of trademarks, trade names, copyrights, invasion of rights of privacy, defamation, illegal competition or trade practices, as well as all reasonable costs, including attorney's fees, in defending any such action(s).

13. CAT reserves the right to cancel this contract at any time upon default by the Advertiser in the payment or other breach, or in the event of any material violation on the part of the advertiser of any of the conditions herein named, or if the Advertiser becomes insolvent or files an assignment for the benefit of creditors. Upon such cancellation, all advertising fees incurred hereunder, including short-term rates or other charges under this contract, and unpaid, shall become immediately due and payable. In case of delinquency of payment, waiver by CAT of any specific breach or breaches of this agreement by Advertiser shall not prejudice the rights of CAT hereunder with respect to any breach or breaches not specifically waived by CAT. In the event of suit for the collection of unpaid accounts, all costs of suit, including attorney's fees shall be added to the monies owed.

14. Term: 15 days from date of invoice. Advertisers who select a lump sum payment will be billed at the beginning of the month in which advertising service commences. Advertisers who selected monthly payments will be billed at the beginning of each month that advertising services are active. Any bill rendered to Advertiser shall be conclusive as to the correctness of the items therein set forth unless written objection is made thereto by the agency and/or advertiser within fifteen (15) days from rendering thereof.

15. If payment is not received within twenty eight (28) days, the advertisement will be REMOVED from the bus and the advertiser will be responsible for that month's payment and up to two (2) additional months' payments if originally contracted.

16. Upon expiration of an advertising contract, salvageable advertising materials (i.e. interior display cards and pre-installation display posters) will be held by CAT for pick-up by the advertiser within 5 days after the date of the contract expiration. CAT shall not be liable for materials not picked up by the advertiser, and upon expiration of the five (5) day retrieval period, the materials shall become the property of CAT and may be disposed of CAT in any manner it deems appropriate. CAT shall not be held liable for the return of any exterior posters already mounted on vehicles.

17. An advertiser's contract with CAT is not assignable by the advertiser.

18. An advertiser's contract with CAT becomes effective when executed by CAT. The written contract, together with these terms and conditions, shall be deemed the full agreement of the parties. No prior representation or assurance, verbal or written, shall affect or alter the rights or obligations of either party as set forth within the parties' agreement. The parties' agreement cannot be modified, unless such modification is set forth in writing and signed by both parties.
